

Teen Summer Reading

AT THE
MIDDLEBOROUGH PUBLIC LIBRARY

In collaboration with the Nichols Middle School, students entering grades 6-8 this fall can complete their school summer reading requirement by participating in the Library's summer reading program.

Sign Up anytime between
June 21 – August 26

Scan QR code to register

Read over the summer for a chance to win one of 9 GRAND PRIZES!

Complete fun activities for more chances to win.

Incoming 6th graders can participate in the kids or teen program.

Win gift cards to Amazon, Target, Dairy Queen, Dunkin' Donuts, the movies, and more!

It's Easy!

Use the free Beanstack Mobile App to track your reading

Read 20 hours

for a chance in the Amazon Reading Raffle

The more you read and do, the more virtual tickets you earn towards the Grand Prize Raffle.

Read 12 hours for a free book and to complete your school summer reading!

Visit midlib.org/teensummerreading

Contact: Teen Librarian Christine Dargelis
cdargeli@sailsinc.org, 508-946-2470

Screen-free BINGO sheets available