My Opinion for the fox

My opinion is I like the fox. In one fine day the fox was helpful to get all of the items for all the people and animals. In Henry Penny the fox was caring to get the food for his family. In chicken litte the fox was independent to work on his own. In the gingerbread man the fox was clever to pretend to be the G.B. mans friend. In the fox's foray the fox was helpful to get food for his family so thay can eta. I like the fox
